5. Privacy statement and declaration

1 Privacy statement and declaration

We collect your personal information so that we can provide you with insurance and related products and services and to comply with our legal and other obligations. We may not be able to perform these functions if you do not provide us with your personal information. We may collect your personal information from a person responsible for the management of your Membership or other authorised person. Generally, you have the right to gain access to personal information we hold about you.

From time to time, we may send you marketing materials about other products or services which we think could be of interest to you. We may send these materials by email or text message. If you wish to withdraw your consent for us to send you marketing materials, either by mail or electronically, please contact us.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties such as:

- our service providers
- health service providers
- financial institutions
- your employer, if you have a corporate insurance product.

To obtain the latest version of our Privacy Policy, visit our website at medibank.com.au or drop into a Medibank store.

2 Declaration and acknowledgement

I declare and acknowledge that:

- I consent to the use and disclosure of my personal information in accordance with the Medibank Private Privacy Policy, as amended from time to time.
 - I have the authority to provide personal information, including sensitive information and health information, about the dependants for whom I am making this claim.
 - The expenses detailed in this claim are not, and will not be, subject to a compensation or damages claim.*
 - I authorise any medical practitioner, hospital or other health service provider, to give Medibank Private, from time to time, full and complete details of all or any medical treatment, hospitalisation, injury, disease, ailment, diagnosis, or other information about me, my spouse/partner or my dependants for the purpose of assessing my entitlements under my level of cover. I have the consent of each person to give this authority on their behalf.
 - All information that I supply in connection with this claim is true and correct.
- * Benefits are not payable where you have, or may have, an entitlement to receive compensation or damages. In such circumstances, we expect that you will pursue that entitlement. We may make provisional Benefit payments on application, subject to our Membership Guide and policies, but you must agree to repay such payments, in full, from your final settlement.

How to claim

At a Medibank store

You will need to complete this claim form if:

- you have not fully paid your account - we will send you a cheque which will be made payable to the provider of the service. You are responsible for paying any difference between the total charge and the Benefit we pay.
- someone else is making the claim on your behalf. See the Agent's authority section on the front of this form.

By mail

Do not send your Membership card when you claim through the mail.

To claim through the mail, complete and sign this Overseas Student Health Cover Claim Form and send it to the address below with your service provider's account. If the account has been paid, your receipt, with complete details, must be attached. Accounts must show details of all services received from the provider.

Medibank Private
GPO Box 9999
In your capital city

What happens next?

Once your claim has been processed, if a Benefit is payable we will post a cheque for the relevant amount to the address registered on your Membership – unless you have ticked the Temporary box on the front of this claim form, in which case we will post the cheque to the temporary address. If you have not paid your account in full, the cheque will be made payable to the service provider. If the account has been paid in full the cheque will usually be made payable to the Contributor.

You are responsible for paying any difference between the service provider's total charge and the Benefit we pay.

For privacy reasons, where the service was received by a Member aged 16 years or over, the statement relating to the claim will be addressed to that Member.

Other information

Benefits are payable for hospital charges, medical services, medically necessary emergency ambulance transport and prescription medicines. However, Benefits are not payable for other extras services (e.g. chiropractic, dental services, glasses or contact lenses). If you require cover for these services, you will need to take out separate extras cover. A separate Membership card will be issued in such cases.

Benefits are not payable for medical examinations (together with associated x-rays and pathology) required by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) as part of the student visa renewal process.

For information on what is and is not covered under your Overseas Student Health Cover, please refer to your Overseas Student Health Cover Membership Guide, visit a Medibank store or go to medibank.com.au

If you are admitted to hospital you will need to lodge a hospital claim form, which is available from the hospital.
