How does GapCover work?

The benefits Medibank Private members are entitled to receive for in-hospital medical services are based on the Federal Government's fee schedule, known as the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS). However, as medical practitioners, you can set your fees above this schedule.

The 'gap' is the difference between the fees charged by you and the MBS fees for the services you provide. This difference can leave our members with out-of-pocket expenses. With Medibank Private GapCover, you can help close this gap for our members.

Our GapCover Scheme

How does GapCover work?

No Gap

Medibank Private's GapCover Schedule of Benefits shows the amount you can charge for a particular service under our GapCover Scheme, so that there will be 'no gap' for a Medibank Private member to pay. The amounts shown in the Schedule include the MBS fee plus the additional amount that we are willing to pay for a particular service. So long as your fees do not exceed the relevant amount in the GapCover Schedule of Benefits, then there will be 'no gap' for our members.

Known Gap

Alternatively you may wish to charge a Medibank Private member a Known Gap. This is any amount you charge that exceeds the amount shown in our GapCover Schedule of Benefits, up to a maximum of $800 per hospital admission. If you submit an account where the Known Gap exceeds $800 for the combined fees for all medical specialists involved in the provision of services for any one hospital admission, the benefit payable to the member for that admission will be reduced to 100% of the MBS. In other words, we will not pay any amount above the MBS.

Informed Financial Consent (IFC)

You are required to provide Medibank Private members with a written estimate of the costs for each hospital admission and they need to sign this if they agree to proceed with the treatment. The written estimate must be provided, prior to treatment where possible or, otherwise, as soon as practicable after the treatment. Participation in the Medibank Private GapCover Scheme is conditional on you meeting these IFC requirements. Medibank Private reserves the right to refuse entry to the GapCover Scheme to providers who fail to obtain IFC from our members. For further information about IFC please call our Medical Enquiry Line on 1300 130 460.

Disclosure of financial interest

You are required to disclose to Medibank Private members, any financial interest you may have in any products or services you provide or recommend they use.

Disclosure should be made prior to treatment where possible or as soon as possible after the treatment.

Provider eligibility

Providers participating in the GapCover arrangements must be registered medical practitioners within the State/Territory and have the rights to conduct private practice. They must also have been allocated a provider number to practice at the medical service address.

Opt in or out

Medibank Private staff will not make recommendations to members regarding their choice of medical practitioner. They will also make clear to members that inclusion on the GapCover specialist list does not affect the ability of practitioners to opt in or out of our GapCover Scheme at their discretion.

Medical practitioner GapCover listing

Medical Practitioners who use our GapCover scheme will be automatically included in Medibank Private's GapCover specialist listing on our website, unless otherwise requested. Medical Practitioners may withdraw from the list by giving Medibank Private 14 calendar days notice in writing of their intention.

What medical services are covered by GapCover benefits?

Only medical services provided by a medical practitioner to a Medibank Private member who is a privately admitted patient during a period of hospitalisation are covered by Medibank Private's GapCover benefits. This includes private patients in a public hospital who are being treated by a visiting medical officer. Salaried medical practitioners at public hospitals can not claim GapCover benefits.

Any consultations or treatments before or after hospitalisation are not covered by our GapCover Scheme and need to be billed separately. Please inform your patient that these expenses are not claimable from Medibank Private, but may be claimable through Medicare Australia.

When are GapCover benefits not applicable?

Medibank Private members will not be entitled to a GapCover benefit when any of the following applies:

- Where a Medicare Australia benefit is not payable or where Medicare Australia has rejected the claim.
- If the membership was not fully paid at the date of service you provided (i.e. the member's premiums were in arrears).
- If the Medibank Private member's health insurance cover does not provide benefits for the services provided (see Patient eligibility check on page 6 for more information).

- If the service was performed while the patient was not admitted as a Medibank Private member to a public or private hospital.
- If the claim was covered by workers' compensation or third party insurance, or if the patient is entitled to receive compensation or damages from elsewhere, in accordance with Medibank Private's Fund Rules.
- If the claim was lodged more than 2 years after the date of service.
- If you submit an account where the Known Gap exceeds $800 for the combined fees for all medical specialists involved in the provision of services for any one hospital admission, the benefit payable to the patient for that admission will be reduced to 100% of the MBS.
- If the patient has not received written information about what amounts they can reasonably expect to pay for the treatment and the patient has not provided their acknowledgment of the information (informed financial consent) and/or you have not disclosed any financial interests you have in the products or services recommended to be provided to the patient.
- If the service is excluded from attracting Medicare benefits such as cosmetic surgery.

Payment of benefit

The benefit we pay you will be based on the MBS item numbers identified by you. Payments typically take 21 days to be processed, provided all other aspects of your claim satisfy the requirements outlined in this booklet.

The benefit will be paid in accordance with the Medibank Private GapCover Schedule of Benefits and the Medicare Australia assessing rules, as amended from time to time.

The Medibank Private GapCover Schedule applicable from 1 November 2009 is provided starting on page 17 of this booklet. The latest Schedule can be downloaded from our website.

Indexation of benefit

The benefit will be indexed automatically each year on 1 November. The calculation will be made taking into account the Consumer Price Index and other indices as defined from time to time by Medibank Private. The calculation will be taken from these figures during the 12 month period ending 30 June of the year in question.

How to claim

Use the information in this section to ensure your accounts can be processed as efficiently as possible. The information required on the account is the same for both your billing options.

Billing

Send the bill directly to Medibank Private.

You will need to follow steps 1 to 4 outlined below.

Simple steps to follow

There are four simple steps to follow:

1. Patient eligibility check
2. Account information
3. Batch header
4. Send your accounts

These are explained in further detail in the sections below.

1. Patient eligibility check

Patient eligibility must be checked to ensure the Medibank Private member has the right level of cover and that their membership will be fully paid at the date you plan to provide the service.

Medibank Private will confirm patient eligibility for you upon request. To ensure membership confidentiality, access to this service is restricted to participating providers. Access to this service must only be used for the purpose of checking patient eligibility for a service you plan to provide.

How to check patient eligibility

1. Call Medibank Private on 1300 130 460. You will be connected to an interactive voice response enquiry service (called an IVR).
2. Select 1 (one) to be connected to the automated patient eligibility enquiry service.
3. Enter the access code 540 300.
4. Enter the patient's Medibank Private membership number and the patient's date of birth to complete the eligibility check.
5. The IVR instructions will guide you through the process and if necessary, transfer you to our staff.

Eligible Medibank Private Hospital Covers

Most Medibank Private hospital covers provide benefits for medical services which are eligible for GapCover benefits.

However the following Medibank Private hospital covers are not eligible for GapCover benefits:

- Public Hospital Cover
- Basic Public Hospital Cover
- Visitors Covers
- Overseas Student Health Cover

Likewise, our members with only Extras cover and/or Ambulance cover are not eligible for GapCover benefits. If the member is not eligible please bill the patient. (Benefits may or may not be payable through Medicare).

2. Account information

Please print only one patient account on each page. Accounts cannot be double sided or hand written.

A Batch Header must accompany all medical claims billed direct to Medibank Private (including resubmitted accounts).

The following details are to be provided on your accounts:

- Patient's Medibank Private membership number
- Patient's name, address and date of birth
- Patient's Medicare card number, including the patient's card reference number (please ensure the Medicare card is current)
- Provider number
- For each service provided, the date of service and Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) item number.
- A fee for each MBS item number (this must be the exact fee payable for the service with no conditions attached eg. early payment discounts)
- Details of any shared fee arrangements with other medical practitioners, including MBS item number, name of other practitioner(s) and their provider number(s)
- Any patient out-of-pocket expense amounts and details of any shared patient out-of-pocket charging arrangements
- Referral details including referral date, referring provider name, number and address
- Any other information relevant to assessment of the service as outlined in the MBS.

Please note that Medibank Private cannot process claims that do not include an MBS item number, even though Medicare Australia accepts either an MBS item number or description.

Non compliance of any of the above information will result in the claim(s) being rejected.

We recommend that you set out your accounts as shown in the example on page 44. Using this format will help improve our processing of your claims.

3. Batch Header

A Batch Header must accompany all medical claims billed direct to Medibank Private. Claims not accompanied by the Medibank Private GapCover Batch Header will not be accepted for processing, including resubmitted accounts.

Please ensure all fields are completed. The Medibank Private GapCover Batch Header, as shown below, can be downloaded from our website.

Why is the Batch Header required?

- The Provider Practice number determines where the payment is to be made. Only 1 provider number on the batch header is accepted.
- It includes an indication that the patient received in writing all relevant financial information about their treatment and Informed Financial Consent has been provided.
- It will indicate that you disclosed to the patient all relevant financial interests you had in any product or service you provided or recommended to them.
- It includes your declaration that the relevant services were provided to a private patient, admitted overnight or for the day, in an approved hospital or an approved day hospital facility.
- It indicates your acceptance of the Medibank Private GapCover procedures outlined in this booklet.

4. Send your accounts

Send your GapCover accounts by mail to Medibank Private for payment:

Receiving Payments

This section explains the process for payment of Medibank Private GapCover benefits, Statement of Benefit and what to do if your account has been rejected.

Payment of claims

Services eligible for Medibank Private GapCover benefits will be paid by Medibank Private provided that Medicare Australia has approved the claim(s). When the benefit is received from Medicare Australia, Medibank Private will make a payment to you, up to the level of entitlement under the Medibank Private GapCover Schedule of Benefits.

Medibank Private will forward payment for each account as soon as assessment is complete regardless of the processing status of the other accounts submitted within the same batch.

If you submit an account where the Known Gap exceeds $800 for the combined fees for all medical specialists involved in the provision of services for any one hospital admission, the benefit payable to the member for that admission will be reduced to 100% of the MBS.

Using the Batch Header provider number

The provider number on the Batch Header determines who the payment will be made to. This provider number does NOT need to be the same as the service provider number on your accounts.

EFT Payments

Benefits are paid as direct deposits into a nominated account by EFT. You can nominate one account for all of your provider numbers or nominate a different account for each provider number. If you have not nominated an account for each of your provider numbers you will need to complete a Provider Details for EFT Payment form. You will find this form on our website.

Statement of Benefits

Allow approximately 10 working days after the EFT payment to receive your statement.

Your Statement of Benefit will be automatically sent to the address of the provider number listed on the Batch Header. To nominate a different postal address for your Statement of Benefits you will need to complete the Pay Group Link form. You will find this form on our website.

Explanation of Codes: Explanation code number that appears under EXP (above) plus the actual explanation. Where the assessment/rejection relates to Medicare Australia, "M/C" will appear immediately before the code number.

Claims Rejection/Assessment

If a claim has been rejected you will be notified in one of two ways.

1. You will receive a letter detailing why the claim has been rejected
2. The Statement of Benefits will outline the reason(s) a claim is rejected by either Medibank Private or Medicare Australia. Refer to pages 13 - 16 for a list of assessment/rejection explanation codes.

Depending on the reason for rejection you may need to:

- Amend the account as necessary and resubmit the account with your next batch. Please indicate on the account that it is being resubmitted.
- Check the account details in accordance with the rejection reason. If Medibank Private benefits are not payable, please bill the patient directly using your normal billing procedures. Remember to mark the account 'The amount on this account is claimable through Medicare Australia only'.

Review of payment – overpayments/underpayments/non-payment

To further improve our service, we have implemented a new claims and reassessment system. All payment reviews need to be logged with our Medical enquiry line on 1300 130 460. You will be allocated a reference number and be notified of status updates via email. Please note a Medical Claim Review form is no longer required.

Frequently asked questions

Item numbers and provider fees

Should I use the MBS fees or the GapCover Schedule to work out the order of items for multiple operations?

You will need to use the Medicare Australia assessing rules as described in the MBS and MBS fees to determine the order of items for multiple operations.

Does it matter in what order I bill anaesthetic items?

Anaesthetic items must be billed in the order required by the Medicare Australia rules. Refer to Group T/10 – relative value guide for anaesthesia in the MBS book.

How do I work out a derived fee for GapCover?

Where the GapCover Schedule lists a percentage and not a fee against an item number, it is a derived fee. Work out the MBS fee for the item number using the Medicare Australia assessing rules and then apply the GapCover Schedule percentage to the MBS fee you calculate.

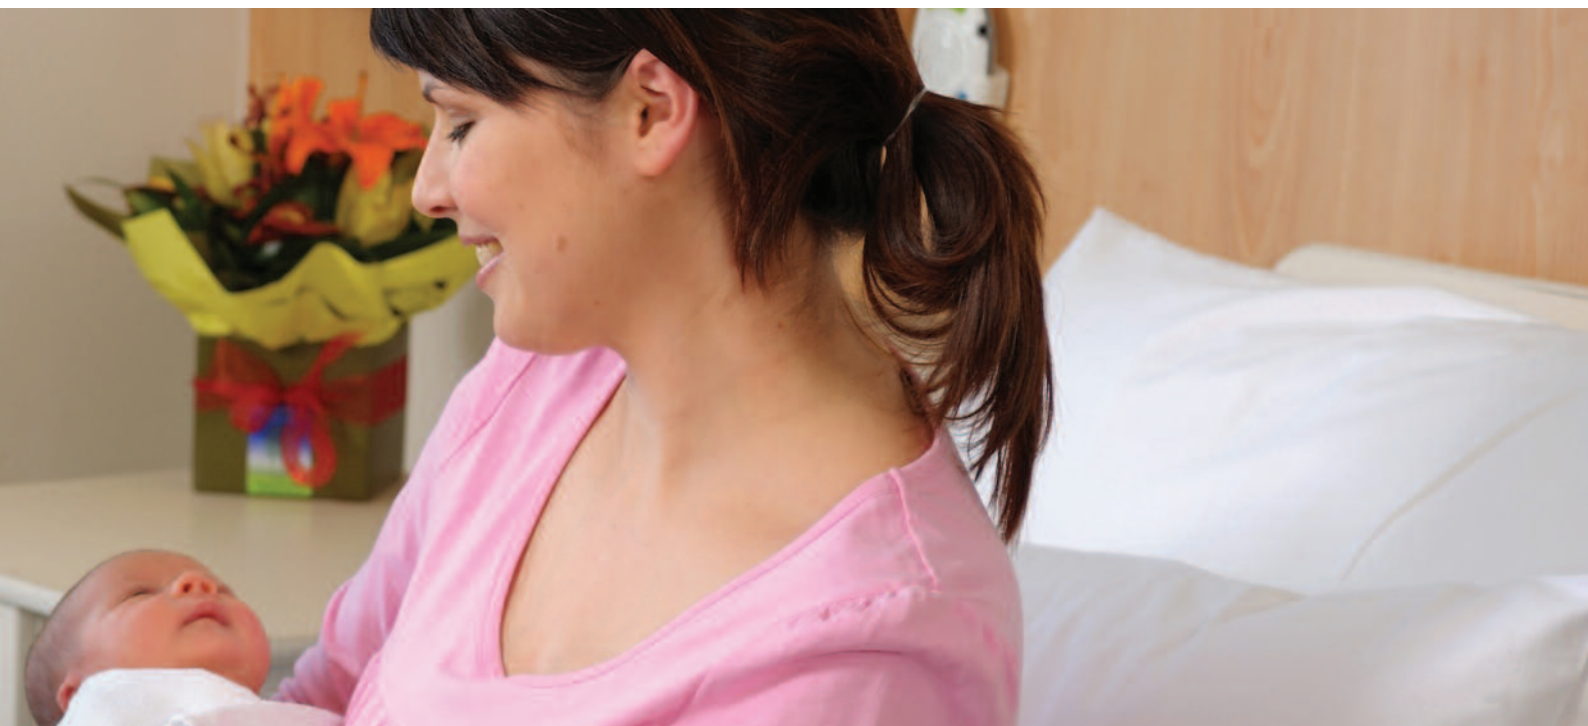

Can I bill for item numbers not listed in the GapCover Schedule?

If you claim for item numbers that are not listed on the GapCover Schedule you will only be paid at the MBS rates. You can only claim these items when accompanied with valid GapCover item/s.

Assistant fees and billing

Should I use the MBS fees or the GapCover Schedule to work out which assistant item number to use?

You should use the MBS fees to work out which assistant item number to use. Refer to Group T9 – Assistant Operations in the MBS book for the fee calculation. When you have worked out which item number to use from the MBS, apply the GapCover Schedule percentage to the MBS fee you calculate.

What information does Medibank Private require on an account for assistant fees only?

The account should be on the assistant's letterhead and indicate the assistant item number, date of service and relevant fee together with the assistant's provider number. Separately, list the surgeon's provider number and the surgical item numbers. Please indicate on the account who is the assistant and who the surgeon is. No fee is required against the surgical item numbers as they are not being claimed.

What if the surgeon is billing for the assistant's fees?

The account should be on the surgeon's letterhead and have all the surgical items listed with date of service and fee for each item.

The account should then have the assistant's item number, date of service and fee plus the assistant's provider number, name and address.

Other questions

What referring provider details do I need to include?

The Provider Number, name and address for the referring provider, the date of referral and the referral period.

Why does Medibank Private need the Medicare patient reference number?

The Medicare patient reference number is extremely important to Medibank Private as it reduces delay in payments due to a possible mismatch with Medicare Australia records. For example, the patient is registered with Medicare Australia as William, but with Medibank Private as Bill.

The reference number must be put at the end of the Medicare number on your account.
